

ADIL - words to do with 'just, fair'

* Dua tahun penjara? Tidak adil itu.

Two years prison? That's unjust / not fair.

* Pengadilan Miami akan mengadili dua warga asing yang diduga mengedarkan pil ektasi.

A Miami court will try two foreigners who are suspected of trafficking ecstasy tablets.

* Dua warga asing akan diadili oleh pengadilan Miami bulan depan.

Two foreigners will be tried by a Miami court next month.

* Mereka menuntut keadilan untuk korban kejahatan seksual.

They are demanding justice for the victims of sex crimes.

Notes

* adil (adj): just, fair.

* mengadili (v): to try (somebody), i.e., try them in court.

* keadilan (n): justice, fairness. [i.e., the state or quality of being "adil"].

* pengadilan (n): a court, i.e. court of law.

Practice. Say it in Indonesian. For each word in bold use an ADIL word. (Be ready to choose between mengadili and diadili as needed.)

1. The victim's family is seeking truth and justice. [with 'kebenaran']

Keluarga korban itu mencari kebenaran dan keadilan.

2. All defendants must be tried fairly. [with 'terdakwa']

Semua terdakwa harus diadili secara adil.

3. The killer was sentenced to death by an Egyptian court. [with 'dihukum']

Pembunuh itu dihukum mati oleh pengadilan Mesir.

4. That domestic servant was dismissed unfairly [with 'dipecat']

Pembantu rumah tangga itu dipecat secara tidak adil.

5. Law students must learn about the Indonesian court system. [with 'sistem']

Mahasiswa hukum harus belajar tentang sistem pengadilan Indonesia.

6. They only want to obtain just treatment in the workplace. [with 'perlakuan']

Mereka hanya ingin mendapatkan perlakuan yang adil di tempat kerja.

7. Small children already possess a strong sense of fairness. [with 'rasa']

Anak kecil sudah memiliki rasa keadilan yang kuat.

8. There is a special court that tries cases of corruption. [with 'kasus']

Ada pengadilan khusus yang mengadili kasus korupsi.

9. That's not a fair way to choose a winner. [with 'pemenang']

Itu bukan cara yang adil untuk memilih pemenang.

10. Rina and her father have very different opinions about social justice. [with 'berbeda']

Rina dan ayahnya mempunyai pendapat yang sangat berbeda tentang keadilan sosial.

11. Those three soldiers were tried by a military court. [with 'prajurit']

Tiga prajurit itu diadili oleh pengadilan militer.